Non-Final Office Action

Summary of this Office Action dated Monday, September 17, 2007

1. Information Disclosure Statement
2. Copending Applications
3. Specification
4. 35 USC § 112 --- Second Paragraph Indefiniteness Rejection
5. 35 USC § 103(a) Rejection
6. Communication

Art Unit: 1616

Information Disclosure Statement

The listing of references in the specification is not a proper information disclosure statement. 37 CFR 1.98(b) requires a list of all patents, publications, or other information submitted for consideration by the Office, and MPEP § 609.04(a) states, "the list may not be incorporated into the specification but must be submitted in a separate paper." Therefore, unless the references have been cited by the examiner on form PTO-892, they have not been considered.

Copending Applications

Applicants must bring to the attention of the examiner, or other Office official involved with the examination of a particular application, information within their knowledge as to other copending United States applications, which are "material to patentability" of the application in question. MPEP 2001.06(b). See Dayco Products Inc. v. Total Containment Inc., 66 USPQ2d 1801 (CA FC 2003).

Specification

The specification has not been checked to the extent necessary to determine the presence of all possible minor errors. Applicant's cooperation is requested in correcting any errors of which applicant may become aware in the specification.

Art Unit: 1616

35 USC § 112 --- Second Paragraph Indefiniteness Rejection

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

The term "formaldehyde-generating compound" is unclear. The type of compounds are included by this citation is indefinite. Applicant may consider amending the claims as in specification.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

1. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

2. The factual inquiries set forth in Graham v. John Deere Co., 383 U.S. 1, 148 USPQ 459 (1966), that are applied for establishing a background for determining obviousness under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) are summarized as follows:

1. Determining the scope and contents of the prior art.
2. Ascertaining the differences between the prior art and the claims at issue.
3. Resolving the level of ordinary skill in the pertinent art.

Art Unit: 1616

4. Considering objective evidence present in the application indicating obviousness or nonobviousness.
3. This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).
4. Claims 1-4 rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over VICTOR WEINMAYR (JOC, 28, 492-4, 1963, IDS reference). The reference teaches a process for producing 2,2,3,3-tetrafluorooxethane by reacting fluoroolefins with formaldehyde in hydrogen fluoride. Trifluoroethylene condenses with formaldehyde in liquid hydrogen fluoride to form 2,2,3,3-pentafluoro-1-propanol and fluoromethyl 1-2,2,3,3,-pentafluoropropyl ether. See the entire document especially abstract, 1-32, 1st column on page 493.

Presently claimed invention is drawn to a process for producing 2,2,3,3-tetrafluorooxethane, which comprises allowing tetrafluoroethylene to react with a formaldehyde generating compound in anhydrous hydrogen fluoride reaction being is carried out in the presence of polyfluoroalkylic acid or polyfluoroalkyl ester thereof, represented by the following general formula: R_fCOOR_f' .

Art Unit: 1616

Instant claims for process for producing 2,2,3,3-tetrafluorooxethane, has been generically taught by the reference.

It would have been obvious to one skilled in the art at the time of the invention to prepare 2,2,3,3-tetrafluorooxethane, by formaldehyde or its derivative and anhydrous hydrogen fluoride because prior art teaches this method. Instant claims are broader than the reference because reaction with "formaldehyde generator" has been claimed. The reaction to prepare fluoro derivatives has been taught by the reference.

In the light of the forgoing discussion, the Examiner's ultimate legal conclusion is that the subject matter defined by the instant claims would have been obvious within the meaning of 35 U.S.C. 103(a).
